Presidents Message

We have had a successful 6 months into 2014 with the almost Sold Out Gujarati play in March, the youth program in May along with our FIRST ever SUPER MOM dance competition. A total of 23 dance performances competed in all categories combined with the participant moms totaling to 70. Thank you goes out to the community and sponsors for making this event a grand success. Now as the festival season begins we are gearing up for festival events but to continue our celebration of 35 years we also have planned a grand event in September.
